

I am very strongly opposed to the proposed media consolidation scheduled to be voted upon on 6/2/03. I feel such consolidation threatens the core values of this nation. Without access to a diversity of opinions on important issues, we undermine the concept of a free press for ALL the people. Big business should not control the public's ability to access divergent views; not in a democracy!